The weapon sunk deep into the hollow, and the savage expired.

I know not how to account for such inhuman acts unless I lay it to what may be called civilized ignorance, for I have remarked that these deeds of cruelty have always been committed, in this country. by ignorant men. This civilized ignorance seems to destroy the finest feelings of nature, while it denies those delicate sensibilities which belong to cultivated minds. There is just sufficient civilization in such ignorance, to destroy all that is worth anything in untutored nature. Were these Indians like the genuine North American red men, in the times of the bloody frontier wars of the United States, brave, subtle, and terrible in their destruction, it would be a different matter. But they are a poor humble, degraded and cowardly race. Sheep Husbandry in South Carolina. Col. J. W. Watts' Flock .- The question has of ten occurred to us. why is it that so little attention has been given to sheep raising in South Carolina The only reason that we have heard given, is that which has operated so powerfully in all the planting States against a diversity of production, viz: the exclusive devotion of our people to the culture of cotton. This cotton mania, if it may be so termed, has already done much to impair our energies and means of producing. It is high time that the size of our cotton fields should be reduced, if by so doing we will be enabled to retain within the limits of our State, the large sums of money which we annually send abroad for articles of consumption which we can raise at home. Why should our State be a market for the horses, mules, bacon, and corn of other States? Why should we send abroad for our coarse cottons and woollens? It is only necessary for our people to take the matter in hand, and direct a portion of their capital into the proper channels. in order to put an end to this dependence upon oth ers for what our own industry can supply us with.

That the growing of wool would be a profitable business in some portions of our State, we have not the least doubt. Our native stock of sheep are well adapted to the climate, and, neglected as they generally are, yield a fair fleece from two to five pounds. But our native stock may be improved upon by the introduction of new and improved breeds. The most FARMING INCONSISTENCIES -Farmers dig their gardens two feet deep, but only plow their land 5 inches They take special care of their nag horses in a good warm stable, but expose their farm horses and cattle to all weathers. They deny the utility of drainage in strong tenacious clays, but dare not dig an under ground cellar in such soils, because the water would get in. They waste their liquid manure, but buy guano from Peru to repair the loss; and some practical men, who are in ecstatics with the urine of the sheepfold, have been known seriously to doubt the benefit of manure. But it may be asked, "Where is the capwe never saw the other ends of some of the wires at Wall street better designated than in the following potatoes, 46 bushels pea nuts, 1 hhd. wax, 5 bbls dried fruit. The highest prices quoted are only paid for the very best articles.

BACON.-We hear of sales only in small lots. Our figures represent near the market prices as we can make them. The ury receipts have been light, as is usual at this season of the NAVAL STORES .- Our review of last Thursday left the market for turpentine in a firm state, at $2 30 a 2 35 for soft, and $1 35 for hard, per 280 lbs. ; at which prices the whole of the receipts since the above date have been taken, with the exception of a small quantity of hard, which went at $1 30. The sales of the week foot up 4,187 barrels,-2,682 at $2 30, and 1,505 at $2 35 for soft and $1 30 a 1 35 for hard, but a small portion of the hard went at lowest figure. The highest prices were given for the article when it was received per boats, and the lowest price when in the water. The market closes firm to-day at quotations. The sales since yesterday noon have reached 1,858 barrels, 1,798 of which fetched our lowest figure-all of which is included in our weekly estimate.
